IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY,

NAGPUR BENCH, NAGPUR

WRIT PETITION NO.2836/2006

-=-=-=

was any such order allowing adjustment of Rs.16,019.95. The Labour Court has refused to grant any interest to the respondent despite the fact that the amounts were due right from the year 1991-92 and the Labour Court has given reason therefor. In so far as argument advanced by learned Counsel for the petitioner about the non-existence of existing right is concerned, I have already pointed out that the same right of the non-applicant was not seriously disputed by the petitioner – Bank and on the contrary the defence was set up that the Bank has to recover amount of Rs. 50,184.80.

In view of this position, I do not find any case for interference. The writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
